VEN MORAN, one of the greatest little fighters John Bull ever sent to this country, sailed for home after beating all the boys that d be persuaded to meet him. Now will be challenges galore, but it id be well for the challengers to reber that Moran will return to this ntry in the fall.

EALLY, it looks as though the Highlanders had struck their longexpected winning streak. At any ate, it is to be hoped so. Frank Farrell in generous in trying to obtain a im, and it seems as though

HE Giants' test begins to-day. They will be at home to the Western teams for the next three eks, and if they can win a majority their games there will be another nant-raising at the Polo Grounds.

OOK out for the appearance of Get-Rich-Quick Ryan and his wash-basketful of bills when the Sarameeting begins. Ryan is having is troubles out West and threatens to East, where he will have a tair ow. If the stewards every give him a eally fair show it may be more than bargained for.

WHILE race track stewards are in the reform mood, wouldn't it be a good idea for them to pay a little attention to the ex-prize fighters nakers surround themselves with? se gentry around, looking for me of the crumbs, it's as much as a tor's life is worth to dare ask for his buse, and the Pinkerton men only look develop Lopsidedness among college sweepsmen, or others, is a movel theme for disussion in aquatic closes, as is shown by the great interest taken in the arguments propounded by the Evening World's sporting pages. Walle it is true that the matter has not heretofore received much, if any publicity, there is great room for thought and suggestion along the line proposed.
